

Join Benenden Healthcare Society – a great healthcare package

If you'd like the security and peace of mind of an excellent healthcare package but have found in the past that it's too expensive, welcome to Benenden Healthcare.

Who is Benenden Healthcare?

Benenden Healthcare is a mutual, not-for-profit healthcare society funded by and for its members so that it can provide medical help for those who need it most. That means it doesn't offer unlimited healthcare benefits, but does offer a wide range of discretionary benefits to its members. Until recently, only people who had been employed in the public sector could take advantage of membership, however recent rule changes have now extended eligibility out to staff and ex-staff of mutual societies, which includes all NGSU Members.
